

While I don't live in an area covered by the traffic reports, I found them very useful during a recent trip through DC, Baltimore and PA. Traffic conditions on demand is far superior to anything available on normal radio.